1. Procedure Statement

This procedure establishes the processes that Texas A&M University-San Antonio (TAMU-SA) will follow regarding System Policy 08.01, Civil Rights Protections and Compliance, and System Regulation 08.01.01, Civil Rights Compliance.

2. Reason

The purpose of this procedure is to provide guidance in complying with local, state, and federal civil rights laws and regulations. This rule establishes the procedures for making, receiving, and processing complaints of discrimination, sexual harassment, and/or related retaliation.

3. Process

3.1 The President shall designate a contact person(s) responsible for overseeing its civil rights compliance program. For Texas A&M University-San Antonio, the following officials will have jurisdiction over the various types of complaints that may be filed by faculty, students, staff, and third parties:

3.1.1 The Associate Vice President for Academic Affairs will oversee compliance and complaints related to this procedure for Faculty members.

3.1.2 The Director of Student Life and Wellness will oversee compliance and complaints related to this procedure for Students. Director of Student Life and Wellness will also serve as the university’s Title IX Coordinator. Director of Disability Support Services will serve as the Section 504 Coordinator.

3.1.3 The Director of Human Resources will oversee compliance and complaints related to this procedure for Staff employees (non-faculty) and third parties. The Director of Human Resources will also serve as the university’s Affirmative Action Coordinator.
3.1.4 Any faculty, student, staff or third party who does not feel comfortable discussing the complaint with one of the officials described above may report it to another high-ranking official at TAMU-SA to include any university Vice President or the President.

3.2 Complaints—Any employee or student who believes that he or she has been subjected to discrimination, sexual harassment, and/or related retaliation should promptly report the incident(s) to his or her supervisor or one of the university officials listed in section 3.1. A third party (including, but not limited to, anyone receiving services from the university, vendors, and private business associates) should promptly report the incident(s) involving a university employee to the university’s Human Resources office.

A complaint is filed by completing the complaint form attached to this procedure, or similar document, and delivering the form to the complainant’s supervisor or one of the university officials listed in section 3.1. The complaint form may include additional pages if more space is needed.

4. General

4.1 Any retaliatory action taken against an employee or student for participating in the procedures established by this rule or related regulations, including filing a complaint, is prohibited. The filing of a complaint, however, will not constrain this university from taking appropriate disciplinary action.

4.2 The time frames for filing, reviewing and investigating the complaint shall be the period specified in Section 4.3 of System Regulation 08.01.01 Civil Rights Compliance, unless unusual circumstances require more time.
