Welcome to the November Newsletter! As we enter November, it's a time for reflection, gratitude, and looking ahead. This month, we're excited to share updates and insights into what's coming next. We hope you find this edition helpful and inspiring as we wrap up the year. Thank you for being a part of our community, and here's to a wonderful November!

What's in this month's issue:

- Jaguar Den Tailgate
- Internships
- TU CASA Hero spotlight
- Looking for local businesses
- Academics: presentation on overcoming challenges
- Thanksgiving University Closure

Jaguar Den Tailgate

Our students had a blast at the first-ever university tailgate! Thanks to everyone who stopped by our table for fun, snacks, and school spirit! Here's to many more tailgates to come!

Internships

The TU CASA students are excelling at their internships! Cecret is thriving as part of the Gallery Engagement team at the Witte Museum, while Michael is making valuable contributions at Habitat for Humanity. We're so proud of their hard work and dedication!

TU CASA Hero Spotlight

Some TU CASA students had an incredible time at the Spurs game, learning valuable lessons on teamwork and strategy to apply to their studies. A big shoutout to our student worker Divya, who's gone above and beyond in supporting peers both academically and socially. Her dedication is helping build a stronger, more connected campus community. Cheers to great experiences and the amazing impact of our student workers!

Thanksgiving Holiday Closure Announcement

As we prepare for Fall Break, please note that the TU CASA and University offices will be closed for the Thanksgiving holiday on November 28th and 29th.

We wish everyone a restful and joyful holiday!

Local Businesses Wanted

Looking for local businesses who are interested in offering paid or unpaid internships to our students.

Academics: presentation on overcoming challenges

Davis delivered an inspiring talk on overcoming challenges and achieving success with diverse abilities. His powerful message emphasized the importance of perseverance, adaptability, and inclusivity, leaving the audience motivated and empowered to reach their full potential.
