Submit an unofficial copy of your college transcript to the Department of University Access. Applicant is still responsible for submitting final high school and college transcripts to the A&M-SA Office of Admissions for completing the admission process. The transcript included in this packet is for GTF Scholars Program application purposes only.

Note: Student must be TSI compliant in Math, Reading, and Writing at the time of New Student Orientation. The GTF Scholarship may be rescinded if student is not TSI compliant in all areas at the time of registration. Students not TSI compliant in all areas may be required to take co-requisite courses. If students do not complete the co-requisite course with a “C” or better, the scholarship may be rescinded.

Recommendation Forms – Part 3

Submit two recommendation forms with your application. Recommendation forms need to be in a sealed envelope. A teacher, counselor, or school official that can vouch for your potential as a successful college student should provide recommendation forms. No more than two forms will be accepted. The recommendation form is found on the last page of the application. NOTE: Applications with less than two recommendation forms will not be considered.

Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) – Part 4

Submit a copy of the confirmation page only with the Estimated Family Contribution (EFC) Score. You must have applied for FAFSA by January 15, 2023. NOTE: If you have not applied by the deadline stated above, your application will not be considered. Applicants will be responsible for ensuring that their financial aid packet is complete with the A&M-SA Office of Financial Aid.
