Suffragists registering to vote for the first time in history in Travis County June 26, 1918. The Texas Legislature had just approved women to vote in the primary elections, giving them one month before the upcoming primary in July to register with a record 386,00 Texas women signing up to vote. Two years, later, women would be legally allowed to vote in all elections (Statesmen)

Delivering our mission

A&M-San Antonio is reflective of the diverse and heritage rich community it serves. University and community partnerships provide a strong foundation for student and academic success and support interdisciplinary teaching and experiential learning. Faculty and staff collaborate to create comprehensive, industry-responsive academic and co-curricular programs that provide a transformative experience for all students. The University’s inclusive environment inspires learning and fosters social development using relevant scholarship, research and public service. A&M-San Antonio graduates leave well-equipped with knowledge and marketable skills that prepare them for rewarding careers, responsible global citizenship and lifelong learning.
