

2021-2022 Verification of Student Marital Status

A review of your 2021-2022 FAFSA, tax documents, and/or other documentation indicates there was recent change in your marital status. Federal Regulations require that institutions verify your marital status and resolve any discrepancies reported on your FAFSA. This form must be completed and signed.

Step 1 – Student’s Information

Last Name First Name Student ID (K or J#)

Step 2 – Required Documents

Please provide the following required documentation:

- Independent Verification Worksheet available at www.tamusa.edu/financialaid/financialaidforms.html
- Your (and your spouse’s, if applicable) 2019 Federal Income Tax Return Transcript, including W-2 forms and 1099s.
- Proof of separation verifying separate households (e.g., lease agreements, utilities, or divorce decree.

Step 3 – Student Information and Marital Status

1. What was your marital status on the day you filed your 2021-2022 FAFSA?

- Married Divorced Widower Separated (Do not include separation due to military service.)

2. What is your marital status as of today?

- Married Divorced Widower Separated (Do not include separation due to military service.)

_____/_____
(MM/YYYY)

Step 4 – Asset Information

Please report the following asset information as of the day you (and your spouse, if applicable) filed the 2021-2022 FAFSA. If a value is zero, you need to write $0. Do not leave any information blank.

Note: Place N/A or zero where not applicable. Ex) If you have no asset information, then Cash Assets = N/A

	Cash Assets (Cash, Savings and Checking Accounts)	Business or Farm Net Worth	Investment Net Worth
Student
Spouse

Note: Business or Farm Net Worth: Don’t include a family farm or family business with 100 or fewer full-time or full-time equivalent employees.

Step 5 – Certification and Signature

I certify that all of the information reported is true and complete to the best of my knowledge. I understand that if all the information requested above is not provided, my request will be denied.

WARNING: If you purposely give false or misleading information, you may be fined

Student’s Signature

Date